Class Meeting Times & Room

This is an Online Course (so, you are to come and go into the Blackboard Vista Online Classroom as much as you feel necessary). Additionally, you will be required to come into a designated HCC testing center for presentational purposes (you will only be required to be present during one testing session where you will give a presentation). This will be discussed during the semester. Those unable to make this presentational session must make arrangements with the instructor prior to the testing date (advice --- it would be in your best interests to be present during this date). Also, see the Attendance Policy below.

It is recommended to utilize the Blackboard Vista Email for the fastest response. This icon and/or tool will be on the left-hand side of your browser page. The icon is an envelope indicated as “Mail.”

Conference Hours

Will be arranged by appointment (please feel free to contact me any time).

Course Description

A survey of the mass media and other areas of mass communication designed to acquaint students with the basic history, law, ethics, theory, function and practice of media industries and disciplines. This course will examine the role mass communication plays in society with the intention of improving student media literacy.

Objectives

When you have successfully completed this course, you will be able to:

- Discuss the development of print and broadcast media, advertising, public relations, movies, books and recordings.
- Identify pioneers in mass communications.
- Examine theories, research, laws and external influences of the media.
- Become a more sophisticated mass media consumer.

Required Text

It is a somewhat expensive book (sorry folks), but it is a necessity. The reason is because not everything on the exams will be strictly from lectures; that is, some aspects of a chapter could be from your reading and not from the lectures. If you have not already purchased your book, you may order your textbook from the HCC Bookstore online at http://hccs.bkstore.com. You can ask for it to be sent to your nearest campus bookstore at no charge, or you can have it mailed to your home with a mailing fee.
Grading & Assignments

Assignments and exams will be graded on a 100-point scale: 100-90 = ‘A’; 89-80 = ‘B’; 79-70 = ‘C’; 69-60 = ‘D’; 59 and below = ‘F’.

The final grade will be determined based upon the following:

- Quizzes:-------------------------------20 %
- Exams (2 including final):----------20 %
- Semester Assignments------------20 %
- Discussion Forums:---------------15 %
- Term Paper/Presentation:--------15 %
- Media Logs (1):------------------10 %

Discussion Forums – Once each discussion forum topic is posted, it will remain online for the duration of the semester (or the designated deadline specified by your instructor).

The icon will be on the left-hand side of your browser page. The icon is a thumb tack indicated as “Discussions.” This tool will be provided to you for the semester.

You will be given a statement, thought, or opinion (this is the discussion forum topic); and, from that, you will be required to respond with your own idea or opinion (that is, your “best educated guess” or “best thoughtful insight”).

An example topic for the discussion forum could be: “The media have much control and influence in our society and our lives.” With this example in mind, you would offer your own idea as a response. Your grade from the discussion forum will be based from the following:

Proficient = 95 % or ‘A’ --- To receive a proficient grade during each discussion forum, you must deliver a thought and/or individual insight (in other words, your own idea and not someone else’s) and provide some kind of backup information supporting your claim. Here is a potential ‘A’ student response to the example topic mentioned above:

- Example – “I agree with the statement, because when the media give us a suggestion we do what they tell us to. For example, when Hurricane Rita came everyone left the city of Houston (due to a
Each student’s response should be different and unique. You are encouraged to elaborate on another student's ideas (remember, everyone will be posting a response in a discussion format). For instance, to elaborate on the response above, you could say, “I agree as well. I drove from Houston to San Antonio because the news made it seem like I absolutely had to get out of Houston.”

‘Gimme-Grade’ or ‘Free-B’ = 85 % or ‘B’ --- To receive a ‘Free-B’ grade, you must make some kind of statement or posting. Here’s a discussion forum example:

- Example – “I agree with what Jane Doe said.”
- This might seem easy, but it is incentive to give some kind of statement to get some credit.

No Response = 0 % or ‘F’ --- If you do not respond to the discussion forum topic during the assigned week, you will receive 0 % as a grade. There is no exception for this; so, either you make the response or you don’t. The discussion forum is your chance to very easily score highly and get some easy points for your final grade. Don’t wait to the last minute; get your discussions out of the way each week so you do not have to face a potential ‘No Response’ grade.

Exams – Each exam will also remain online for the duration of the semester (or the designated deadline specified by your instructor).

Quizzes – You will be given Chapter Post Quizzes following every chapter; these quizzes will remain online for the entire semester (or the designated deadline specified by your instructor), but it is highly recommended that you take the quiz as soon as you can after it has been posted (in other words, do not wait until the last minute to do all of your quizzes).

Semester Assignments – You will have various assignments to complete throughout the semester as you are working through the course material and/or chapters.

Term Paper/Presentation – Instructions for this task will be given and discussed during the semester.

Media Logs – Instructions for this task will be given and discussed during the semester.

- Blackboard Vista Login Page

  This page will get you into the Distance Education (web-based) portion of this class (this is the login page to lead you to where you will go to class):

  - http://hccs.blackboard.com/webct/entryPageIns.dowebct
  - If you have login problems, please try to use your DE Technical Support Center. If you still have problems, then please contact me (your instructor).

- Blackboard Student User ID

  Your Blackboard login user ID will be your HCC User ID (sometimes referred to as the “W” number). All HCC students have a unique User ID. If you do not know your User ID you can look it up by visiting the HCC home page:

  From www.hccs.edu, click on Student System Sign In (on the right-hand side of the page below ‘Connect’) and then click Retrieve UserID. From here, follow the directions to get your ID number.

  Once you have this number readily available, you can use the following direct link to get you to the Blackboard Login Page:

  https://hccsaweb.hccs.edu:8080/servlets/iclientservlet/sauat/?cmd=start

  The default student password is “distance.” Students will then be prompted to change their password after their first login. Please visit DE Technical Support FAQs if you need additional assistance with your log in.

- HCC Course Withdrawal Policy

  The State of Texas imposes penalties on students who drop courses excessively. Students are limited to no more than SIX total course withdrawals throughout their educational career at a Texas public college or university.

  To help students avoid having to drop/withdraw from any class, HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor will “alert” you and Distance Education (DE) counselors that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance. Contact your DE professor regarding your academic performance or a DE counselor to learn about helpful HCC resources (e.g. online tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc.).

  In order to withdraw from your DE class, you MUST first contact your DE professor, PRIOR to the withdrawal deadline to receive a “W” on your transcript. After the withdrawal deadline has passed, you will receive the grade that you would have earned. Zeros averaged in for required coursework not submitted will lower your semester average significantly, most likely resulting in a failing grade of an “F”. It is the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the class; however, your professor reserves the right to withdraw you without your request due to excessive absences. If you do not feel comfortable contacting your professor to withdraw, you may contact a DE counselor. However, please do not contact both a DE counselor and your DE professor to request a withdrawal; either one is sufficient.

The final withdrawal deadline for each term can be found under the calendar which is on the HCC Home Page. If you click on View Academic Calendar By Term and select the term you are currently enrolled in, you will be able to find exactly when the withdrawal deadline is for the semester (and various other important dates as well). Classes of various durations (regular term, second start, mini-term, flex-entry, 8-weeks, etc.) may all have different final withdrawal deadlines. Please review HCC’s online View Academic Calendar By Term or contact the HCC Registrar’s Office at 713.718.8500 to determine mini-term class withdrawal deadlines.

Distance Education Advising and Counseling Services

Much DE student information can be found on the DE Student Services website: www.de.hccs.edu. Advising or counseling can be accomplished by telephone at (713) 718-5275 - option # 4 or via email at decounseling@hccs.edu. Student Services Associates (SSA) and Counselors can assist students with admissions, registration, entrance testing requirements, degree planning, transfer issues, and career counseling. In-person, confidential sessions, can also be scheduled, if necessary, as HCC counselors maintain a local referral base in order to provide appropriate referrals to students with personal or family issues that may require long-term solutions.

International Students

International Students are restricted to ONLY ONE online/distance education class per semester. Please contact the International Student Office at (713) 718-8520 if you have additional questions about your visa status.

Students with Disabilities

“Any student with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the appropriate HCC Disability Support Service (DSS) Counselor at the beginning of each semester. Faculty is authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office.

Students who are requesting special testing accommodations must first contact the appropriate (most convenient) DSS office for assistance:

Disability Support Services Offices:

- System – (713) 718.5165
- Central – (713) 718.6164 – also for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services and Students Outside of the HCC District service areas.
- Northwest – (713) 718.5422
- Northeast – (713) 718.8420
- Southeast – (713) 718.7218
- Southwest – (713) 718.7909

After student accommodation letters have been approved by the DSS office and submitted to DE Counseling for processing, students will receive an email confirmation informing them of the Instructional Support Specialist assigned to their professor.

Notice for Students who Live Outside of Houston

Students who live or work outside the Houston area and cannot take paper exams at one of our HCC testing locations MUST make arrangements for a proctor. Please see the DE Student Services Additional Resources webpage for more information.

Virtual Classroom Conduct

As with on-campus classes, all students in HCC Distance Education courses are required to follow all HCC Policies & Procedures, the Student Code of Conduct, the Student Handbook, and relevant sections of the Texas Education Code when interacting and communicating in a virtual classroom with faculty and fellow students. Students who violate these policies and guidelines will be subject to disciplinary action that could include denial of access to course-related email, discussion groups, and chat rooms or being removed from the class.

Attendance Policy

This is an Online Course, and your grade will be reflected upon your involvement or lack thereof within the class. Logging on and checking the content of the course frequently is not only a good idea, but it is also imperative for your success in this online course. The instructor can see the length of time you’ve logged into Blackboard Vista and even what pages or sections you have visited while logged on. Consequently, the instructor can virtually see all of your movements throughout the course. If you never log on, you will miss work and essentially miss class. So, show up for class. It is recommended to visit the class daily to check for important updates, announcements, and changes.

- Late Work

It is your responsibility for making up all class related materials. You will receive a 0, if you do not make arrangements for makeup quizzes, exams, and/or assignments. Do not expect me to come to you for what you miss or do not turn in.

- Academic Dishonesty

HCC commits itself to the preparation of Mass Media professionals and scholars. Such a mission demands the highest standard of academic honesty and integrity. Violations of academic honesty, including but not limited to plagiarism, collusion, deception, conflict of interest and theft are not tolerated and can lead to severe penalties. Disciplinary actions are outlined in the Student Handbook. Don’t take any chances with this; it’s simply not worth it.

- Use of Cameras or Recording Devices & Class Copyright Disclaimer

Use of recording devices, including camera phones and tape recorders, is prohibited in classrooms, laboratories, faculty offices, and other locations where instruction, tutoring, or testing occurs. Students with disabilities who need to use a recording device as a reasonable accommodation should contact the Office for Students with Disabilities for information regarding reasonable accommodations.

The reformatting, editing, copying, or duplication of this class (for both Online and in-class sections) and its contents are strictly prohibited without written consent of the section designer.
